

TAREE AND DISTRICT EISTEDDFOD

INSTRUMENTAL AND ELECTRIC PIANO

SYLLABUS 2018

Copies of the syllabus and entry form are available at:
www.tareeeisteddfod.com.au

THANKYOU TO OUR DONORS

In order for our competitors to have a positive and professional experience our section uses our premier venue and qualified sound techs for every session. Our costs far out way our entry fees and corporate sponsorships. We would like to thank all of our wonderful trophy donors and section sponsors from 2017. Without you we would not be able to keep our section going. If you would like to support our event we would very gratefully receive your donation for the purchase of trophies or sponsorship of cash awards. Thankyou ☺

NOTICE TO TEACHERS

All teachers must collect and display their teacher passes clearly on clothing when entering the MEC with students or full admission fees will be charged. Please advise co-ordinator of all education staff needing teachers passes. ALL PARENTS must enter through the front entrance of the building. No parents will be allowed access from backstage to the audience area. Audience members not wearing an admission sticker for the session will be asked to produce them. We appreciate your co-operation.

END OF SESSION

At the conclusion of each session the theatre will be cleared until the commencement of the next session. Please ask the Door Person about day and section passes to reduce admission costs to the theatre.

THE 51st ANNUAL EISTEDDFOD

N.B. All fees quoted include G.S.T.

Tentative Performance Dates: 4th June to 8th June 2018 inclusive Instrumental & Electric VENUE: MANNING ENTERTAINMENT CENTRE, PACIFIC HIGHWAY, TAREE NORTH.

Entries close: Friday 23rd February 2018

ENQUIRIES: Phone and Fax (02)6551 5599 or the Coordinators, Tanya & Trevor Brown on ph:65515067

IMPORTANT: Please address your entries as follows:-Instrumental/Electric Co-ordinators - C/- P.O. Box 379, Taree 2430 or place in the box at Bass 'n' Blues Music Shop 10/20 Albert Street Taree 2430

General Rules and Conditions can be found on the website.

Instrumental/ Electric Sub Rules: These are to take precedence over general rules.

Please read carefully.

Responsibilities - It is the responsibility of the entrant, the entrant's teacher or parent to list the correct numbers of the sections and championships on the entry forms and competitors tickets as per the 2018 syllabus. The Committee deems no responsibility for incorrect entries received. No entries will be received after the closing date, including those from schools.

Amalgamation Guidelines: if there are less than 5 entries to a section then the following guidelines will be applied.

Novice Sections: will only be amalgamated with other novice sections with differing instruments but similar age groupings.

Restricted sections: will only be amalgamated with other restricted sections as per above.

Advanced Sections: will only be amalgamated with other advanced soloists.

Championships: may be amalgamated to the closest age grouping.

COMPETITORS TICKETS: These must be attached to the adjudicators copy of music for each section entered. A sheet of competitors tickets is attached to the back of this syllabus but if more are required feel free to photocopy them. Music with Competitors tickets attached should be handed in at the music room 15 minutes prior to the section beginning. The Music Room co-ordinator reserves the right to refuse any music copy NOT completed with a ticket.

ADJUDICATOR: Instrumental and Electric – Mr. Jason Noble B Mus (hons), LMusA

ADMITTANCE TO CENTRE - We ask that everyone who enters the theatre pay a small session fee which is used to offset the major costs of staging the Eisteddfod. Day and season tickets are available. Competitors and accompanists do not pay and a season ticket is sent free of charge to teachers only.

PROGRAMME BOOK - 2018 Programme Book cost $13.00 plus p/h $4.00. Money to be sent with entries if required.

SUB-RULES FOR INSTRUMENTAL/ELECTRIC SECTION.

N.B. All general rules and conditions are adhered to unless altered by sub-rules pertaining to Instrumental and Electric.

1. NOVICE SECTIONS - Applies to competitors who have been learning any instrument for less than two years consecutively with a teacher. If you have gained a 1st place in a novice section in the 2017 Eisteddfod, you may still be able to enter a Novice section in 2018, as long as you have been learning your instrument for less than two years.

2. RESTRICTED SECTIONS - Applies to competitors who have not gained a first placing in any Eisteddfod in the last two years, and for those competitors moving up from the Novice section, irrespective of placing in their Novice Section

3. APRA changes to the photocopy regulations will allow an accompanist to use a photocopied piece of music provided that the accompanist part is printed on the same page as the solo instrument. The copy must be marked "accompanist copy" and must be handed in to the committee for collection. These will be forwarded by the Eisteddfod Society to AMCOS after the conclusion of the Eisteddfod. If a separate publication of a piece of music exists for an accompanist, then that original must be used for the competitors performance. DECLARATIONS ARE AT THE BACK OF THIS SYLLABUS FOR COMPLETION RE COPYRIGHT AND ARE IN LINE WITH APRA REGULATIONS. THE COMMITTEE TAKES NO RESPONSIBILITY IF ANY PERFORMER IGNORES THESE COPYRIGHT REGULATIONS

4. Jazz/Brass/Concert Bands, which are community based and utilise players of varying standards, may use teachers, musical directors/ conductors within their group providing that these form only a small minority of the overall group and that they are full members of that group. Each community group is considered to be of amateur status since the majority of that group are amateurs and are adjudicated as a whole.

5. Definition for POST 1900 MUSIC:

This may be any music played in any style but must have been composed since 1900. Any improvisations done by students in this category of style do not have to be written out, but an indication given that an improvisation segment is occurring. NB music labelled as 'traditional' is to be regarded as belonging to the Pre 1900 sections.

6. Definition for PRE 1900 MUSIC:

- Music can be from Baroque or earlier, Classical, Romantic, Neo-Classical, Impressionist periods or Folk/Ethnic genres. NB traditional music is included in this definition
- Arrangement may be simple or difficult, but must be played as written on the copy handed in to the Adjudicator.
- Interpretation (dynamics) may be left to the individual.

7. Special arrangements may be made with the Coordinators for teachers to be backstage to do any tuning of instruments.

8. Accompanists – are to be provided by each competitor, although the Co-ordinators may be able to help with possible names. Performers may be accompanied by any other instrument, however, if a piano accompanist is to be used, then please note the following:-An electric piano (Roland & Casio) will be provided by Bass 'n' Blues Music.

9. If you have any special requests e.g. performance times/dates because of religious reasons, please indicate this on your entry form for consideration.
