Maggie Barry the 2018 Roma Liggins winner at Taree Eisteddfod

Dancing is a huge passion of mine and have been competing at the Taree Dance Eisteddfod in groups and solos for over seven years now. I dance at Allstars Studio of Dance in Laurieton five days a week and enjoy learning a diverse range of styles from my amazing teacher - Jazz, Lyrical, Contemporary, Hip-hop, musical theatre, cabaret, ballet, tap, calisthenics, acrobatics and vocal training. I have attended multiple workshops and summer schools sponsored by Taree Eisteddfod including Newcastle Ballet Theatre summer school in 2017 and a week of full-time with National College of Dance in 2018. Other workshops I've attended include Jason Colman Ministry of Dance, ED5 International and the Ultimate Dance workshops. I'm currently in my last year of high school at Camden Haven High and have an amazing group of friends. In the future, I hope to become a professional dancer and travel the world.

YOUR WILL CAN HELP

The Eisteddfod Society is delighted to give its time voluntarily to stage the Eisteddfod.

Did you know it now costs over $100,000 annually to stage?

In trying to keep costs to entrants as low as possible, we seek your assistance in raising money to fund a successful future.

Leaving a bequest to the Eisteddfod will ensure that the competitors we support get every opportunity to achieve their dreams.

Example of a bequest:

"I give $..... to the Taree & District Eisteddfod Society Inc. for the running costs of the Eisteddfod"

Thanks for helping the youth of today go forward with confidence to make a difference tomorrow.
