Emma Highlands - 2022 Roma Liggins winner at Taree Eisteddfod

I will be forever grateful for being awarded the Roma Liggins Scholarship. It will be a memory that will always stick with me, highlighting the start of a new journey.

I remember when I first began competing in the Taree Eisteddfod I wanted to win the scholarship, it was always a goal of mine. I looked up to the award winners before me, inspired by their maturity, talent and their passion for music which pushed me to work hard.

As I have grown older and this scholarship has been awarded to me, it has become more than just a prize, but an opportunity from the people who have encouraged me over the years to achieve my goals and dreams, this including the Taree and District Eisteddfod Society.

This scholarship has already helped me further my career in regards to extending my music studies. My next journey is University and with the scholarship money I have used it to pay for University applications and auditions to Queensland Conservatorium and Sydney Conservatorium to study a Bachelor of Music (Performance), both auditions being successful.

I feel lucky to have been given this opportunity at the perfect time, as the cost of Uni is not cheap and even the application process is costly. I am planning on using the rest of the scholarship to pay for textbooks and any other student necessities.

So again, thank you for this opportunity, I won't waste it.
